Dear Allen:

Thank you for your letter of September 14th. I hope you can come to the Board meeting on September 29th, but if you do not get here we will entirely understand.

I, too, would welcome an opportunity to have a chat. I have no present plans for a trip to Washington; but I will gladly come down especially to see you if you aren't too rushed to spare the time. I have meetings here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, but I could come down on Thursday or Friday.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Mallory
